

2018 AGO NATIONAL CONVENTION

Bus Schedule

The main hotel is the Sheraton (all meetings, receptions, and workshops are held there). However, the Sheraton and Westin provide free shuttle bus service between the two hotels from 7 am until 11:30 pm; therefore, you won't need to walk the 2.5 blocks between the hotels during the convention. Buses will run from both hotels, except as noted below.

Every effort is being made to accommodate "come and go" Bus Transportation service to individual events at this convention. In most cases, you can return to the hotel after an event rather than having to go to the next event. You can also go from the hotel to the next event without having attended the previous event. To provide this accommodation, you'll be asked to leave the hotel somewhat earlier than normal, and on an early return trip, you may be on a bus that stops by the next event before bringing you on back to the hotel (extending your return trip time). Pick Ups and Drop Offs will only be provided at the Sheraton for most of these special cases (but you can take the free hotel shuttle to or from the Westin to the Sheraton).
